WE PONTIANKERS ARE REAL MEN ...Ummm...DARN IT!

An editorial by Keith MacDonald

It's getting harder and harder to be an honest-to-goodness, genuine, card-carrying male these days. That is, unless you drive a classic Pontiac.

I don't mean this in the gender-bending sense that guys are wearing earrings, spandex shorts, buying Ricky Martin CD's, or watching movies starring Richard Gere. I'm talking about this whole perception of male incompetence, sexual inadequacy, and general wimpiness...

TECHNICAL POST OF THE MONTH

Chalk up one more for the cast impeller.

This Month's Tech Thread of the Month Goes to George Kujanski!

Everybody who's visited the PY Forums – in fact most of civilized society -- has seen the "Chalk Up One More for The Cast Impeller" thread. This is because older Pontiacs run hot – it's a fact as certain as any movie starring Hugh Grant being sappy and contrived. A thread was started in the "Heating and Cooling" tech forum which now boasts more views than Pope John Paul's funeral. PY member, George Kujanski, seemed to take this thread under his wing and has kept it...

PY FORUMS LOSES TWO MEMBERS DURING THE SAME WEEK

You'd have to be only an occasional visitor to the Performance Years Forums if you hadn't already heard of the tragic deaths of fellow Pontiyakers, Larry Davis (43) of Indiana and Joel "Oldinjun" Hefner (48) of Cottonwood, CA.

The staff at Performance Years, including the forum administrators and moderators as well as the Pontiac Journal editors and contributors, shares their sorrow and express their condolences to the families and friends of those who were taken so suddenly, during the prime years of their lives.

THE MONGO CAN AM

Keith MacDonald

Have you ever tried to wrestle a steer to the ground? How about your mother-in-law? With all that was going on at Jim Zeek's "Pontiacs in the Park" at VA Motorsports Park in May, it was just as hard to get Brian "Mongo" Baker to sit down for a few minutes and tell me about his Can Am! Actually, the above is just a ruse; Brian was very...
